

409. RULES BY BOARD.

The Board shall prescribe reasonable rules for its conduct, and for the qualifications, registration and examination of applicants to practice or teach beauty culture, and for the registration of apprentices, teachers, students, demonstrators, managers and owners of beauty shops or schools of beauty culture, and for temporary licenses to be issued at the discretion of the Board, and generally for the conduct of persons, co-partnerships, associations or corporations, affected by this Act. Rules established by the Board shall be printed and supplied to applicants and license holders.

410. POWERS AND DUTIES OF BOARD.

(a) The board shall have the power to refuse, revoke or suspend licenses or certificates, upon due hearing, on proof of violation of any provisions of this Act or the rules and regulations established by the Board under this Act, or for gross incompetency or dishonest or unethical practices, and may refuse to grant a certificate to a person guilty of fraud in passing the examination, unprofessional, immoral or dishonest conduct, or to one addicted to the liquor or drug habit to such a degree as to render him or her unfit to practice in any of the occupations classified under this Act, or to anyone advertising by means of knowingly false or deceptive statements, or for failure to display the certificate provided in this Act, and shall have the power to require by summons, which shall be served by the Sheriff of Baltimore City or the counties where witnesses may reside, the attendance of witnesses and the production of such books, records and papers as it may desire. Before any certificate shall be suspended or revoked for any of the reasons contained in this section, the holder thereof shall have notice, in writing, of the charge or charges against him or her, and shall, at a day specified in said notice, which shall be at least five days after the service thereof, be given a public hearing, before the Board or its Secretary with full opportunity to produce testimony in his or her behalf and to confront the witnesses against him or her. Any person whose certificate of registration has been so suspended or revoked, may, on application to the Board and in the discretion of said Board, have the same reissued to him or her upon satisfactory proof that the disqualification has ceased. Before the Board may institute any of the above proceedings, it shall send a notice in writing to the certificate holder of any alleged violation of this Act or rules there-
