

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 202 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, Edition of 1924, title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Guardians and Infants not Residing in the State," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

202. Where any infant not residing in this State is entitled to any property or estate, real, personal or mixed, or to any debts or choses in action in this State, or due by or recoverable from any person or persons, corporation or corporations in this State, or from any estate upon which letters testamentary or of administration have been granted in this State, having no guardian appointed in this State, but having a guardian appointed in the State, district or territory in which the infant resides, duly qualified according to the laws thereof, and who shall there have given good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his trust as such, or in words to that effect, then, and in such case the orphans' court of the county or city in this State in which such property, or any part thereof, of such infant may be situated, or where such debts or choses in action, or any part thereof may be due or recoverable, either wholly or in part, shall pass an order authorizing and empowering such non-resident guardian to take into his possession such property wherever situated in this State, and to sue for and recover such debts or choses in action from all persons or corporations in this State, and from all estates upon which letters testamentary or of administration shall have been granted, and to act in all respects as if such guardian had been duly appointed by some one of the Orphans' Courts in this State; provided, however, that before any such order shall be passed, such guardian shall first file a petition, setting forth the fact that such non-resident infant is or claims to be entitled to such property, debts or choses in action, as hereinbefore mentioned, and shall also give bond, with security to be approved by the said Orphans' Court, in the same manner as if such infant resided in this State, and shall file in the office of the Register of Wills an instrument designating some local agent on whom service of any process may be made in like manner and with like effect as if it were served personally on such guardian.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1, 1935.

Approved May 17, 1935.
