

Somerset County and by such other advertisement as the Mayor and Council of Crisfield deem advisable, but the right is reserved unto the Mayor and Council of Crisfield to reject any and all bids. If no bids are received after such advertisement, or if all of the bids received are rejected by the said Mayor and Council of Crisfield, the said Mayor and Council of Crisfield is authorized and empowered to sell said bonds by private sale at not less than par and accrued interest.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds shall be applied: first, to the payment and refunding of all outstanding bonds aggregating Thirty-eight Thousand Dollars ($38,000.00) due and owing unto sundry persons, corporations or banks by said municipal corporation.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of securing the prompt payment of all installments of interest on said bonds as the same shall become due semi-annually as aforesaid, and for the purpose of redeeming said bonds at maturity the Mayor and Council of Crisfield are hereby authorized and directed to levy annually a special tax upon the assessable property of the City of Crisfield in such sum as may be necessary and sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds semi-annually and to redeem Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) of said bonds annually commencing February 1st, 1936, as aforesaid, until the same have been fully redeemed and retired, and the said special tax hereby authorized to be levied in this section shall be in addition to the amount already heretofore authorized by the Charter of Crisfield and shall be collected at the same time and in like manner as other taxes levied in said city are collected, and that upon the redemption of all of said bonds and the payment of the interest thereon as aforesaid, then this special tax herein provided for shall cease.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved: April 29, 1935.
