

George's County. All such license fees shall be payable to the Comptroller for use of the State before any such license is issued and, except an otherwise provided by this Act, all such licenses shall be subject to all of the provisions of Article 2-B of the Code of Public General Laws entitled "Alcoholic Beverages."

Section 565-B. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2-B of the Code of Public General Laws, no holder of Class A "Beer" License or Class A "Beer and Light Wine" License in Prince George's County shall be permitted to sell any "Beer" or "Beer and Light Wine" at wholesale to any other license holder, it being intended that such licensees shall restrict their sales to consumers and that no person other than the holder of a "WHOLESALERS" or "MANUFACTURERS" license shall be permitted to sell "Beer" or "Beer and Light Wine" to the holder of a Class A "Beer" License or a Class A "Beer and Light Wine" License in Prince George's County.

Section 565-C. The holder of any license issued under the provisions of Article 2-B of the Code of Public General Laws shall be permitted to exercise all of the privileges conferred by such a license on the day of any municipal election in any of the incorporated towns of Prince George's County.

Section 565-D. No refund of any part of any license fee paid under the provisions of Article 2-B of the Code of Public General Laws shall be allowable in Prince George's County except upon the death of the licensee before the expiration of his or her license when application for such refund may be made by the executor or administrator of the decedent and the refund shall be made upon compliance with the provisions of said Article 2-B.

Section 565-E. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2-B of the Code of Public General Laws, any licensee may obtain a renewal license without obtaining the certificate of approval of the owner of the building in which the business is conducted, provided the licensee is the holder of a lease upon the entire building for not less than the term of the renewal license. After any licensee has conducted his business for the period of one year or more, he shall be permitted to sell and transfer the same, including the license to any person, subject to the provisions of Article 2-B of the Code of General Public Laws, except that