CHAPTER 40.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 11A of Chapter 30 of the Acts of the Extraordinary Session of 1933, which authorizes the several counties, municipalities, public corporations, special taxing districts and political sub-divisions of the State to secure certain benefits under the National Industrial Recovery Act, for the purpose of eliminating Queen Anne's County from the list of counties to which said Act does not apply and removing the limitation as to the amount which Wicomico County may borrow.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 11A of Chapter 30 of the. Acts of the Extraordinary Session of 1933, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

11A. None of the provisions of this Act shall apply to Somerset, Garrett, Caroline, Carroll and Frederick Counties, and that the County Commissioners of said Counties and municipal corporations located therein shall have none of the powers provided for in this Act, except that in the town of Crisfield, Somerset County, the corporation officials shall have the power to borrow under the provisions of this Act any sum not in excess of thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000.00). None of the provisions of this Act shall apply to any incorporated town in Talbot County and said incorporated towns located therein shall have none of the powers provided for in this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved: May 17, 1935.

CHAPTER 41.
