

as may permit such applicant, permit holder, or licensee to perfect his proceeding in error. No proceeding to reverse, vacate or modify a final order rendered by the Commission other than an order revoking a license or permit shall operate to stay the execution or effect thereof unless the court, or a judge thereof in vacation, on application and three days' notice to the Commission, shall allow such stay, in which event the appellant shall be required to execute a bond, payable to the State of Maryland, in such sums as the court may prescribe, with surety to the satisfaction of the court, conditioned for the prompt payment by the appellant of all damages arising from or caused by the delay in the effectiveness or enforcement of the order complained of. Any such proceeding to reverse, vacate or modify an order rendered by the Commission revoking the license of any milk dealer or permit of any producer shall operate to stay the execution or effect thereof, but the court or a judge thereof in vacation, on application and three days' notice to such milk dealer or producer may require, as a condition of such stay, that such milk dealer or producer execute a bond payable to the State of Maryland, in such sums as the court may prescribe with surety to the satisfaction of the court conditioned for the prompt payment by the appellant of all damages arising from or caused by the delay in the effectiveness or enforcement of the order complained of.

No court other than the Circuit Court of Baltimore City or the Circuit Court for the counties sitting in Equity, in the proceedings herein mentioned shall have the power to review, suspend or delay any order made by the Commission, with respect to the granting of a license or permit or the refusal to grant a license or permit the granting of a conditioned and limited license or permit or the suspension or revocation of a license or permit, or enjoin, restrain or interfere with the Commission or any member thereof, in the performance of official duties with respect thereto. The judgment or findings of such courts in any proceeding herein mentioned may be appealed to the Court of Appeals of Maryland in the manner provided by law for appeals from said courts in cases originating before the Public Service Commission.

Section 9. In determining the reasonableness of prices to be paid or charged in any market or markets for any grade, quantity or class of milk, the Commission shall be guided by the costs of production, including compliance with all sanitary regulations in force in such market or
