

markets, the supply of milk in such market or markets, necessary operating, processing, manufacturing, storage, transportation and delivery charges, the fair return on invested capital, the prices of other foods, and the welfare of the general public. In approving, disapproving or amending schedules showing such prices the Commission shall require that the same shall be uniform as among the several milk dealers licensed in any market for each grade, quantity and class of milk to be purchased for the market. In approving, disapproving, or amending schedules showing such prices the Commission shall require that the same shall be uniform as among the several milk dealers licensed in any market for each grade, quantity and class of milk to be sold in the market. All prices to producers approved under the provisions of this section shall be f. o. b. distributive plant in the respective sales area, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (g) of section 3.

Section 10. Licenses shall be issued under the seal of the Commission in such form as the Commission shall prescribe, but each license shall set forth:

- (a) The name and place of the business of the licensee.
- (b) The type or types of business licensed.
- (c) The market or markets in which the license shall be operative.
- (d) The period of the license, which shall be for one year from date of issuance, except, however, during the year 1937, in which year the license shall run only to the termination date of this Act.

The original or a certified copy of each license or permit and the schedule or schedules of prices to be paid and/or charged so far as required for the type of license issued, shall be conspicuously displayed by the licensee or permit holder in each place of business; but a delivery vehicle shall not be deemed a place of business for the purpose of this requirement.

Section 11. A licensed milk dealer may at any time during the period covered by his license file with the Commission an amended schedule of prices he desires to pay or charge for the remainder of such period, or any other lawful amendment of his existing license. Thereupon the Commission may issue to him an amended license, subject to the provisions of this Act. The Commission may decline to issue such amended license, or may issue an amended license specifying prices other than those set