

ducers or dealers, by health authorities, or such other public agencies, by any provisions of law, and in addition to the requirements of whatsoever character exacted from or imposed upon milk dealers or producers by the provisions of any charter or ordinance of any municipal corporation, or any sanitary or other regulations of any health authorities, pertaining to the production, storage, handling, content or marketing of milk. Nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to repeal or modify any such law, ordinance, or regulation, or as in conflict with any such charter provision unless herein excepted.

Section 21. Nothing in this Act shall be construed or applied as to prevent the sale of raw milk when otherwise complying with this Act.

Section 22. The sections and parts of sections included in this Act are hereby declared to be independent sections and parts of sections; if any such section or part of section shall be held invalid such holding shall not affect the remainder of this Act, nor the context in which such part of section so held invalid may appear, excepting to the extent that an entire section or part of section may be inseparably connected in meaning and effect with the section or part of section to which such holding shall directly apply. The intention and purpose of this Act as hereinbefore defined extends to the regulation of the milk marketing industry of this State to the full extent permitted by the constitutions of this State and of the United States as applied to legislation enacted under the emergency conditions described in this Act.

Section 23. Any milk dealer engaged in business on the date on which this Act shall take effect and any producer supplying milk to a milk dealer doing business in this State whose application for license or permit duly filed pursuant to the provisions of this Act, shall not have been disposed of at the expiration of the period of thirty days mentioned in this section, shall be entitled to continue in business under a provisional license or permit issued in the manner and subject to the provisions of sections 10 and 12 of this Act until such application has been finally disposed of. The provisions of Section four of this Act shall not take effect until the expiration of sixty days after the effective date of the Act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That in the exercise of the police power of the State and to protect the public
