

association in said County. Every license shall be appropriately numbered by the official issuing the same.

337K. Any holder of a license under the provisions of this Act may be permitted to transfer his place of business to some other location or to sell or assign said license to another person, provided that application for such transfer or sale shall be made and duly advertised and the new location or assignee shall be approved as in the case of the original application for such license. Such transfer or assignment when made shall be endorsed upon the license by the Clerk upon the payment of a fee of one dollar in addition to the cost of the publication and notice which shall be paid at the time of the filing of the application for such transfer or sale.

337L. No license shall be issued to a partnership as such, but only to the partners as individuals. No license shall be issued to a corporation or unincorporated association as such, but only to one or more individuals duly authorized to act for the corporation or association, and such individuals shall assume all of the responsibilities, and be subject to all of the penalties, conditions and restrictions imposed upon licensees under the provisions of this Act. The application for every such license shall disclose the name and address of the corporation, partnership or association, as well as the name and address of the applicant. If any fine shall be imposed by any Court upon any individual who has obtained a license under the provisions of this Act for or on behalf of any partnership, corporation, or unincorporated association, the bond given by said applicant, and also the partnership, corporation or unincorporated association, shall be liable for the payment of such fine, and upon the revocation of any such license no new license shall be granted for or on behalf of such corporation or unincorporated association or for the sale of beer upon the same premises until after the expiration of two years from the date of such revocation.

337M. It shall be unlawful for any licensee to sell beer except in pint bottles which must be capped as hereinafter provided. An excise tax of two cents per pint bottle is hereby levied on all beer sold, offered for sale or kept for sale in Garrett County, which tax shall be paid by the wholesalers having licenses to sell beer to licensees authorized to sell beer at retail, under this sub-title, and shall be paid into the general funds of the county. The payment of such
