The said treasurer shall immediately after the making of the levy, in each year after the passage of this Act, publish for two successive weeks in said two newspapers a short notice informing the public generally, that if taxes are paid on or before the first day of September next succeeding the date of such notice there will be allowed a deduction of three per centum from the amount of said taxes; and that on all taxes not paid on or before the 1st day of September in each year, interest at the rate of six per centum per annum will be charged. And the said treasurer shall immediately after the first day of January in each year, give a second notice, published as aforesaid, notifying the public generally that all taxes which are not paid on or before the first day of February next succeeding the date of such notice, will be collected by advertisement and sale, as provided for by law. Each of the said newspapers so designated as aforesaid shall be allowed the sum of ten dollars per annum for publishing the two aforesaid notices.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and being passed upon a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 17, 1935.
