

clusive, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of Garrett County at the next general election.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of determining whether or not Sections 337A-337X, both inclusive, of this Act shall take effect, the Supervisors of Elections of Garrett County be and they are hereby authorized to hold a special election on the last Tuesday in May, 1935, if the County Commissioners provide the cost thereof, as hereinafter provided, and at said election there shall be submitted to the legal and qualified voters of said County the following question, to wit: "Shall the sale of beer be permitted in Garrett County?" Said Supervisors of Elections are hereby directed to have printed on the ballots to be used at said special election the words: "For Beer" with a square or box to the right of and opposite said words for the cross mark of the voter, and on a separate line the words: "Against Beer" with a square or box to the right of and opposite said words for the cross mark of the voter.

Said Supervisors of Elections are authorized and directed to give at least 30 days notice prior to the last Tuesday in May of said election by causing the same to be published in two newspapers printed and published in Garrett County. Said Supervisors of Elections are authorized and directed to expend for the holding of said election a sum not exceeding $300; and said Supervisors shall pay to clerks and judges participating in said special election a salary not exceeding one dollar per day, and shall pay not exceeding two dollars per day as rent for each polling place opened for said election. The County Commissioners of Garrett County are authorized to levy upon the taxable property of said County, a tax sufficient to yield a sum not to exceed $300. and to pay not more than $300. to said Supervisors of Elections, to be used by said Supervisors for the sole purpose of defraying the expenses of said election. It shall be unlawful for any of the County Commissioners of Garrett County or any Supervisors of Elections thereof to accept, receive or take in any manner any donation and/or thing of value of any kind whatsoever from any person, firm, association or corporation who is interested in whether or not said sections become effective in said County; and any person violating the provisions of this paragraph shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars nor more than five hundred ($500.00) dollars, or shall be imprisoned for not less than thirty days nor more