

field, air school, flying club, air beacon, or other air navigation facility, or in any case where the commission shall issue any order requiring certain things to be done, it shall set forth its reasons therefor and shall state the requirements to be met before such approval will be given or such order modified or changed. In any case where the commission may deem it necessary it may apply to a court of equity to order the closing of any airport, or landing field, or to order any air school, flying club, or air beacon, or other air navigation facility to cease operations until it shall have complied with the requirements laid down by the commission. To carry out the provisions of this Act the State Aviation Commission and any officers, state or municipal, charged with the duty of enforcing this Act, may inspect and examine at reasonable hours any premises, and the buildings and other structures thereon, where such airports, landing fields, air school, flying clubs, air beacons, or other air navigation facilities are operated. Any order made by this Commission pursuant to this act shall be served upon the interested person by registered mail or in person before such order shall become effective.

15C. The Commission or any Commissioner, or officer of the Commission designated by the Commission, shall have the power to hold investigations, inquiries and hearings concerning matters covered by the provisions of this Act, and all accidents in aeronautics within this state. All hearings conducted by the Commission shall be open to the public. Each Commissioner, and every officer of the Commission designated by it to hold any inquiry, investigation or hearing, shall have the power to administer oaths and affirmations, certify to all official acts, issue subpoenas, compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of papers, books and documents.

If a person fail to comply with any subpoena or order issued under the authority of this Act, or if a person in attendance before the Commission or a Commissioner refuse, without reasonable cause, to be examined or to answer a legal and pertinent question, or to produce a book or paper when ordered to do so by the Commission, the Commission or such Commissioner may apply to any Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, or of the Circuit Court of any County, upon proof by affidavit of the fact, for a rule or order returnable in not less than two or more than five days, directing such person to show cause before the Judge who made the order, or any other Judge aforesaid, why he should not be committed to jail; upon the return of such order, the Judge before whom the matter
