

(a) To the Passionist Monastery, located at Irvington, Baltimore, Maryland, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) absolutely, and to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) absolutely, and to the Associated Professors of St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore City the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) absolutely, and I request that each of said Institutions use such legacies respectively in having Masses offered for the repose of my soul, including thirty (30) Gregorian Masses by each; I also bequeath unto the Associated Professors of Loyola College the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) absolutely, and unto the Pastor of the Cathedral of Baltimore, located at the corner of Mulberry and Cathedral Streets, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) absolutely, and I request that said legacies respectively be used in having Masses offered for the repose of my soul.

(b) To the Oblate Sisters of Providence (Colored Sisters of St. Francis Orphans' Asylum, Chase Street and Forrest Place, Baltimore, Maryland, the sum of Fifteen Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00)

87. To the following bequests contained in the Last Will and Testament of Annie Dryden Trundle, late of Baltimore City, Maryland, deceased, which Will is dated February 23, 1934, and recorded among the Will Records of Baltimore City in Wills Liber J. H. B. No. 179, folio 301 &c., viz:

(a) To St. Bartholomew's Protestant Episcopal Church at Ten Hills, Maryland, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) to be used for the purpose of installing a suitable memorial in that edifice to the memory of my beloved husband, Wilson Burns Trundle, who died April 19th, 1914.

(b) To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Maryland, a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland, for the use of the Trustees of the Cathedral of the Incarnation Foundation, the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), and the following articles of my personal property, viz: my diamond brooch made by Kirk, and my diamond earrings. It is my desire that the aforementioned articles of personal property be sold by the legatee herein at such proper and fitting time as may, in its judgment, seem best, and that the monies realized from the sale of the said articles be added to the aforementioned bequest of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) and that the total sum be used for the purpose of installing a suitable memorial organ chime in the Cathedral of the Incarnation, to my memory and to the memory