

within Prince George's County, and it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to dump garbage, trash, refuse, rubbish or junk in any other place in said District within said County except those so designated by said Commission, and before any person, firm or corporation shall engage in the business for hire of collecting such garbage, trash, refuse or junk, it shall obtain a permit from said Commission, and pay such a reasonable fee as may be fixed by said Commission, which permit may be revoked at any time for cause.

It shall be the duty of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission to maintain the public dumps in a sanitary manner and for this purpose may incinerate the rubbish or treat the dumps with such materials as it may deem desirable to prevent same from becoming nuisances. Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any person, firm or institution residing within the above defined boundaries engaged in feeding garbage to hogs nor shall it apply to dumps in incorporated towns which are maintained by such towns.

The Commission may, at its discretion, fix a reasonable fee for the use of said dumps by any individual, firm or corporation, and all charges collected under this Act shall be used for the operation and maintenance of said dumps, or for the repayment to the Commission for the purchase or rental thereof.

In the event that said Commission can not secure, free-of-charge, the necessary locations for said dumps within or without said Sanitary District, it may use such part of its revenue from water as may be necessary for the purchase or rental of dumps situated within or without said District, and in the event that it desires to take any given property or dump site, and is unable to negotiate with the owner, it shall have the right to condemn said site as it is now authorized to condemn property for its use under Chapter 122 of the Acts of 1918.

Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1935.

Approved May 17, 1935.

CHAPTER 322.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 37 of Article 2B of the Annotated Code of Mary-
