

general circulation published in said county. The intention of this Act is to facilitate and expedite the collection of taxes in Queen Anne's County, and thereby generally promote the business of the County Commissioners' office in said county, and for that purpose all the provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed and all powers belonging to collectors of taxes of said county at the date of the passage of this Act, so far as the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and its purposes, and so far as the same will facilitate the Treasurer of said county in the discharge of his duties hereunder, shall be possessed by and are hereby given to said Treasurer; but he shall not by implication be held to possess any of the powers of such collectors as might tend to delay him in the discharge of his duties, or render the purpose of this Act more difficult.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1935.

Approved May 17, 1935.

CHAPTER 385.

AN ACT to add one new section to Article 51 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Juries," said new section to be known as Section 24, to follow immediately after Section 23 of said article, to provide for the regulation of the course and conduct of jurors in criminal and in civil cases.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That one new section, said new section to be known as Section 24, be and is hereby added to Article 51 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Juries," to follow immediately after Section 23 of said article, and to read as follows:

Section 24. The jurors sworn to try either a criminal or a civil action may, at any time before the submission of the