

($6,000.00) Dollars and said bond shall be liable for the faithful performance of the duties of said office and for faithfully accounting and paying over to the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostberg all taxes, water rent and other assessments that have been received by the said Tax Collector except such taxes, water rents and assessments as the Mayor and Councilmen may allow as insolvencies, the claims for insolvencies to be submitted by the said Tax Collector to the said Mayor and Councilmen during the term of his office. He shall, on the tenth day of January, in the year for which he was elected, take proceedings to collect by law all taxes remaining unpaid, and he shall collect by law all water rents that have been due for fifteen days and all assessments within six months after they are due. Thirty days after the expiration of each quarter he shall notify the water superintendent of all water rents for the preceding quarter remaining unpaid, and it shall be the duty of the water superintendent to turn over the same, and he shall not again turn on the water for the property or properties in default until the water rent due, together with a fee of one dollar, is paid to said collector, which said fee shall be paid by said collector to the town treasurer. The said collector shall be allowed three per cent. (3%) for all money collected, but the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg are authorized to retain from the money due the said Tax Collector for his services such an amount or percentage of the fees due to said Tax Collector as they may determine by ordinance and apply the same to the payment of such taxes, water rents or other assessments which they have not allowed as insolvent and which therefore should have been collected by said Collector.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for immediate preservation of the public health and safety and having been passed by yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members of the two Houses elected to the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
