

there shall be an election held in the City of Cambridge for the purpose of choosing Commissioners, as hereinafter provided, and once in each year, if the Commissioners so desire, they may take the sense of the qualified voters, as to the passage of any ordinance or ordinances which they contemplate passing. In the year 1912 there shall be selected by the qualified voters of each of wards Nos. 1, 4 and 5 a Commissioner who shall hold office for a term of four years, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified and there shall be elected by the qualified voters of each of wards Nos. 2 and 3 a Commissioner to hold office for a term of two years, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified, and on the second Wednesday of July, in the year 1914, and on the second Wednesday of July in each and every fourth year thereafter there shall be elected by the qualified voters of each of wards Nos. 2 and 3 a Commissioner who shall hold office for a term of four years or until his successor is duly elected and qualified and there shall be elected on the second Wednesday of July, in the year 1916, and on the second Wednesday of July, in each and every fourth year thereafter, by the qualified voters of each of wards Nos. 1, 4 and 5 a Commissioner who shall hold office for a term of four years or until his successor is duly elected and qualified. The Commissioners shall provide the official ballots for such election or elections, the form and arrangement of such ballot to be as they shall be by order prescribed except that all candidates for the same office shall be grouped together and the names shall be arranged alphabetically on said ballot. The Commissioners shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, at each polling place on the day of said election to the judges of election before the opening hour, the said registries of voters and a sufficient number of the said official ballots, not less, however, than twice the number of registered voters at each polling place or ward, and one of such ballots shall be handed by the judges of election to the voters as they shall apply for them for the purpose of voting and shall be accepted by the judges or counted in canvassing the vote provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent candidates for the various offices to have sample ballots, to be provided for at their own expense, for instructing the voters. After each name on said ballot and to the right thereof, shall be a square upon which the voter shall make a cross-mark to indicate the candidate of his choice. If any voter cannot read or write, or is disabled by reason of any physical infirmity, he may ask one of the judges of election to mark his ballot as he desires. When a voter offers to vote the
