

hereinafter referred to, but, if the Commission in the exercise of its powers as aforesaid, permanently interferes with the use of any public road or roads and bridges as the same are now located, it will, in that event, at its own expense, provide such new road or roads and bridges as may be necessary at new locations to take the place of any of those whose use is permanently interfered with.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That said Commission is hereby authorized to accept from any State, or any State or Federal Agency, or from any political subdivision of any State, or from any persons or corporations, free grants of money or anything else for and/or in aid of the acquisition and/or construction and/or maintenance of any lands, structures, buildings, dams, impounding reservoirs, stream beds, water ways, road ways, rights of way, water rights, or watersheds and appurtenances within the District, and to enter into contracts for the free grant of money or anything else in aid of such purposes and powers with any State or Federal Agency. The term "Federal Agency" shall mean the United States of America, the President of the United States, the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, or other such agencies as may be designated or created to make grants or loans pursuant to the National Industrial Recovery Act of Congress of the United States of America, approved June 16, 1933, or any Acts amendatory thereof, or any Acts supplemental thereto, or revisions thereof, or any further Acts of the Congress of the United States of America to encourage public works, to reduce unemployment and thereby to assist in National Recovery and to promote the public welfare, or to regulate the flow of navigable or other streams, or to conserve water resources. The term "State" as used herein, shall mean any State of the United States and shall include any Boards, Commission or other agency or sub-division of such State and shall mean and include two or more States or Agencies thereof acting jointly.

SECTION 5. Be it further enacted, That immediately after the passage of this Act and the organization of the Commission, it shall enter into such negotiations with such State or Federal Agencies as may be empowered to grant and/or furnish free funds to said Commission to carry out the purposes of this Act, and it is empowered to make any and all contracts and agreements requisite, for the purpose of obtaining, by free grant or gift all or any part
