

sale shall result in a surplus over and above the lien and cost of removal, such surplus shall be refunded to the owner or owners of the temporary privilege.

Temporary minor privileges are those in the nature of awnings, barber poles, signs, skids, clothes racks, sidewalk displays and vending machines and the like, which can be removed without a material alteration of the property where the said privilege is located. Permanent minor privileges are those in the nature of steps, porticoes, bay windows, bow windows, show windows, columns, piers, covered vaults, covered areaways, drains or drain pipes, and the like, which cannot be removed without a material alteration of the property where the said privilege is located.

Nothing contained in this amendment shall affect the payment or collection of any minor privilege charges, temporary or permanent, accruing before the year 1935 or the payment or collection of charges for permanent minor privileges during and after the year 1935. As to any of such charges which are not paid during the year or years in which they accrue or have accrued, the Manager of the Bureau of Receipts may record them in his "Tax Lien Record," where they shall remain a lien until paid, or sell the property at which the privilege is located under the provisions of Section 43, et seq. of the Charter and Public Local Laws of Baltimore City (1927 and 1930 Editions).

In issuing minor privileges hereafter the Board of Estimates shall designate the same as being "temporary" or "permanent."

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1st, 1935.

Approved April 4, 1935.
