

of such order, post a true copy thereof upon said premises in the manner above provided for notice to occupants.

Provided, that every such order and copy thereof shall contain a notice that compliance therewith shall be required within a period of thirty days from the date of issuance thereof, and also that any person desiring to contest the validity of any such order may enter an appeal from said order to a Court of competent jurisdiction in the county where said premises are located, praying a review of such order, said appeal to be filed before the expiration of said thirty-day period.

56E. Any party feeling himself aggrieved by any such order shall have the right, before the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of any such order, to file an appeal from said order to a Court of competent jurisdiction in the county where said premises are located, naming the Insurance Commissioner as defendant, and the entry of any such appeal shall operate as a stay of said order. It shall be the duty of the Court to which such appeal is taken, to forthwith hear and determine the same, and to affirm or reverse the order from which said appeal is taken, and such decision shall be final and not subject to further appeal.

56F. Any owner or occupant of any building or premises served with a copy of such order in the manner above provided, who shall fail to comply with such order within thirty days from the date of issuance thereof, or within thirty days after any appeal from such order has been affirmed by the Court, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, be subject to a fine at the rate of ten dollars per day for each day's neglect to comply with said order, or imprisonment for not less than ten days or more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

56G. In the event any owner or occupant of any building or premises served with a copy of such order in the manner above provided, shall fail to comply with such order within the time specified in the preceding section, the Insurance Commissioner and his duly authorized deputies may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into and upon the premises affected by such order and to cause the said building, structure, or premises to be repaired, torn down, demolished, materials removed and all dangerous conditions to be remedied, as the case may be, at the expense of the owner or occupant, and if