

from be devoted to the perpetual care of the graves of my father and mother, John Weaver and Lydia Weaver.

247. To the following bequest contained in Item 3 of the Will of Jeannette Fuechsl Frankel, recorded in the office of the Register of Wills for Baltimore City in Liber E. R. D. No. 165, folio 578:

To the Oheb Shalom Congregation the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) in special trust and confidence, to invest and reinvest the same in its discretion, or to deposit the same at interest in some reliable savings institution, and to apply the net income therefrom for the purpose of keeping perpetually in good care and condition our family lot in the cemetery of said congregation, and the trees, graves, soil, shrubbery, monuments and mausoleum thereon. Said cemetery is located on the Mt. Carmel Road in Baltimore County, Maryland.

248. To the following bequest contained in the Will of Laura V. Applegarth, recorded in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City:

To the Church of Saint Michael and All Angels, a corporation, located at 2001 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, Maryland, the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00), free and clear of any collateral tax, with the request that this legacy be added to and used for its endowment fund.

249. To the following bequest contained in Item 5 of the Will of Laura V. Applegarth, recorded in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City:

To the Church of the Redeemer, a corporation, located at Charles Street and Melrose Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00), free and clear of any collateral tax, with the request that this legacy be added to and used as a part of its endowment fund and as a memorial to my dear daughter, Bessie Applegarth Debman, deceased.

250. To the following bequest contained in the Last Will and Testament [Item 2 (c)] of Frederick H. Gottlieb, recorded in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City:

To the Little Sisters of the Poor, $250.00.