

men's Compensation," sub-title "Appeals," changing the procedure in the trial of appeals from any decision of the State Industrial Accident Commission.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 56 of Article 101 of the 1929 Supplement to the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Workmen's Compensation," sub-title "Appeals," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

56. Any employer, employe, beneficiary or person feeling aggrieved by any decision of the Commission affecting his interests under this Article, may have the same reviewed by a proceeding in the nature of an appeal and initiated in the Circuit Court of the county or in the Common Law Courts of Baltimore City having jurisdiction over the place where the accident occurred or over the person appealing from such decision, and the court shall, from the record made before the Commission (or upon any stipulation of the facts which may be agreed to and signed by the parties and filed with such appeal), determine whether the Commission has exceeded the powers granted it by the Article, and whether it has misconstrued the law and facts applicable in the case decided as disclosed by the record aforesaid or such stipulation. If the court shall determine that the Commission has acted within its powers and has correctly construed the law and facts, the decision of the Commission shall be confirmed; otherwise it shall be reversed or modified. Upon the hearing of such an appeal the court shall, upon motion of either party filed with the clerk of the court according to the practice in civil cases, submit to a jury any question of fact disclosed by such record or stipulation involved in such case. No such appeal shall be entertained unless notice of appeal shall have been served personally upon some member of the Commission within thirty days following the rendition of the decision appealed from. An appeal shall not be a stay. If the decision of the Commission shall be changed or modified, the practice prevailing in such cases as to the payment of costs and the fees of medical and other witnesses shall apply. In all such appeals upon suggestion in writing, under oath, of either of the parties to said proceedings that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial in the court in which the same may be pending, the said
