

court shall order and direct the record of proceedings in such appeal to be transmitted to some other of the Circuit Courts of the Counties or Common Law Courts of Baltimore City for trial. Appeal shall lie from the judgment of the Circuit Court of the county or the Common Law Courts of Baltimore City to the Court of Appeals as in other civil cases. All appeals under this Article shall have precedence over all cases except criminal cases.

In all cases where compensation is awarded on appeal, whether by an affirmance, reversal or modification or an order of the State Industrial Accident Commission, the claimant shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the compensation awarded, interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum on any installments of compensation not paid as they matured under the award of the Commission or would have matured had the same compensation been awarded by the Commission at the time of passing its order from which the appeal is taken.

The Attorney General shall be the legal adviser of the Commission, and shall represent it in all proceedings whenever so requested by any of the Commissioners. In all court proceedings under or pursuant to this Article, the decision of the Commission shall be prima facie correct and the burden of proof shall be upon the party attacking the same.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1931.

Approved April 17, 1931.

CHAPTER 407.
