

Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Garrett County," sub-title "Justice of the Peace and Constables," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and that a new section be and the same is hereby added to said article, said new section to be known as Section 238A, to follow immediately after Section 238 of said article, and all to read as follows:

238. The Constables of Garrett County shall be entitled to charge and receive the following fees for services rendered by them in criminal cases:

For serving and return of State's Warrant.....	$1.00
For each mile traveled by him in serving and return of said warrant.....	.05
For taking prisoner from place of arrest to justice of peace in said county; each mile.....	.05
For delivering prisoner committed to jail, to jailer..	.75
For each mile traveled in so doing, including conveyance for self and prisoner.....	.10
For serving summons for witnesses in criminal case, each witness.25
For serving and return of search warrant.....	1.00
For any other service rendered in criminal cases, and not herein enumerated, he shall be entitled to receive a fair and reasonable sum, to be determined by the County Commissioners.

238A. It shall be the duty of the constable in taking prisoner before a justice of the peace for a hearing, to take said prisoner before the justice of said county residing nearest to the place of arrest, unless the warrant for the arrest has been issued by some other justice of the peace. It shall be unlawful for any constable to receive any other compensation from the County Commissioners other than that herein set forth.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1st, 1931.

Approved April 6, 1931.