

shall give a sufficiently reasonable description of the matter to be submitted to the voters at such election, by a reasonably sufficient publication of this Act, or such parts of it as are necessary for the voters to reasonably understand the question to be voted upon.

The ballots to be voted at said election shall have thereon, a brief reference to, or explanation of, this Act, printed thereon, and under the same there shall be provided two lines with a square at the end of each; in one of which squares, on the one line, the voter may mark his or her approval, or in the square on the other line, his or her disapproval, by a cross mark therein, and on the one line opposite one square shall be these words:

“For Sewage Disposal Plant.”

And on the other line opposite the other square, shall be these words:

“Against Sewage Disposal Plant.”

If a majority of all the voters who vote in the said election shall vote “For” a sewage disposal plant, then this Act shall, at once, take effect, and be operative; but if a majority of all of said voters who vote at said election, vote “Against” the sewage disposal plant, then this Act shall be of no effect, and shall be void.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That in the event that it shall appear to The Commissioners of Cambridge that a majority of votes cast at the special election provided for in this Act shall be “For Sewage Disposal Plant,” and bonds are actually issued under the provisions of this Act, then any failure to comply with any of the provisions of this Act concerning the conduct of the special election shall not affect the validity of the bonds issued under the authority of this Act or impair the right of any holder of such bonds to collect the principal and interest when due; and no purchaser of any of the bonds authorized by this Act, and no holder thereof, for value and in good faith, shall be bound to see to the application of the purchase money of said bonds.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act to the extent of a submission to the voters of Cambridge, the approval or disapproval of it, and such further extent as necessary, shall take effect on the first day of June, 1931.

Approved April 17, 1931.
