

entitled to vote at any such election, provided he or she be duly registered as hereinafter provided.

The legal voters qualified as aforesaid and duly registered as herein provided, shall elect by ballot on the first Monday in June, nineteen hundred and thirty-two, and every two years thereafter on the first Monday in June, at such place within said town of Princess Anne as may be designated by the President and Commissioners of said town, one commissioner who shall hold office for six years and until his successor is duly elected and qualified as herein provided; and the present commissioners of the said town of Princess Anne, Clarence W. Phillips, George W. Colborn and William P. Fitzgerald, shall continue to hold office until the expiration of the terms for which they were respectively elected, that is to say, the said Clarence W. Phillips until the first Monday in June, nineteen hundred and thirty-two, the said George W. Colborn until the first Monday in June, nineteen hundred and thirty-four, and the said William P. Fitzgerald until the first Monday in June, nineteen hundred and thirty-six, and until their respective successors are elected and qualified as herein provided.

No person shall be eligible to election as commissioner of said town unless he be a qualified voter therein, duly registered in the manner hereinafter provided and shall have resided continuously in said town for a period of one year next preceding said election; the said commissioners when elected shall, within one month after their election qualify by taking the oath prescribed by the Sixth Section of the First Article of the Constitution of Maryland, before the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County; and at the first meeting of the said commissioners, after any election as aforesaid, which said meeting shall be held within one month thereafter, they shall choose from their body a president who shall preside at all meetings of said commissioners and vote on all questions before them, and who shall hold said office during the pleasure of the majority of said commissioners; the said commissioners shall meet in regular session at least twice in each month of the year and shall hold special meetings at the call of the president or of the majority of said commissioners and shall receive each the sum of twenty-five dollars per year salary and in the event of a vacancy among said commissioners the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall serve only during the unexpired term of the commissioner in whose place he was appointed.

301A. In the year nineteen hundred and thirty-two there shall be a general registration of all persons entitled to vote at the election for town commissioner as provided and set forth in Section 301 of this Article, and for the purpose of said regis-