

tration the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall appoint from among the qualified voters in said town of Princess Anne, one registration officer who shall also serve as judge of election for said year and shall provide a registration book so arranged that the names of the registered voters in said town may be entered alphabetically and space provided for the entry opposite each name of the place of residence, age, color and date of registration of each voter, and there shall also be provided in said registration book vertical columns in which the judge of election may enter after the name of each registered voter the letter "V" as each voter casts his ballot at any election provided by this Act; said registration officer so appointed shall, before he undertakes to serve, make oath in due form before the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Somerset County, that he will faithfully discharge the duties of registration officer and judge of election for the election of a town commissioner for said town of Princess Anne, and said registration officer and judge of election shall be entitled to receive the sum of five dollars for each day he may be required to serve as said registration officer and said judge of election, to be paid by the President and Commissioners of Princess Anne.

On Monday, four weeks preceding the first Monday in June, nineteen hundred and thirty-two, and on Tuesday following said first named Monday, the said registration officer shall sit at a place in said town designated by said commissioners for the purpose of registering all persons having the qualifications prescribed by Section 301 of this Article, for voting at said town election, the said registration officer shall sit from eight A. M. until six P. M. on each of said days and shall enter in said registration book the name, age, color and place of residence and date of registration of all persons who possess the qualifications prescribed for voting at elections for town commissioner, set forth in Section 301 of this Article, and for the purpose of determining the right of any such applicant to register, the said registration officer shall have the right to examine such applicant or any other witness under oath, and for the purpose of such examination may administer to such applicant or witness the following oath:

"In the presence of Almighty God, you do solemnly promise or declare (or you do solemnly and truly declare and affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you, touching the place of residence, name, place of birth, qualifications as a voter and right of any applicant to register and vote under the laws of this State, at the election of a town commissioner for Princess Anne."

Before the close of said registration on said Tuesday the said registration officer shall list for erasure the name of any person whom he may have reason to suspect as not being entitled to