

registration or who does not possess the qualifications prescribed by Section 301 of this Article, and he shall also place upon said list the name of any person whose right to registration may be challenged by any person, provided said challenger makes oath before said registration officer that he believes such person so challenged does not possess the qualifications for voting at said town election prescribed by Section 301 of this Article; said registration officer shall thereupon on said Tuesday, mail to each of such suspected persons, addressed at Princess Anne, Maryland, a notice to the effect that his or her right to registration has been challenged and notifying such person to appear before said officer on Monday, three weeks before the first Monday in June, nineteen hundred and thirty-two, between the hours of eight A. M. and six P. M., to show cause why his or her name shall not be stricken from said register; said registration officer shall sit again on said Monday three weeks before said first Monday in June, between the hours of eight A. M. and six P. M. for the purpose of revising said register, but no new names shall be added on said revision day and the said registration officer shall have full power and authority to strike from said register the name of any person whose name was placed upon the aforesaid suspected list, if satisfied that such suspect is not a qualified voter as in this Act provided, but any person feeling aggrieved by the action of said registration officer, either in registering or refusing to register any person, or in striking any name from said registration book, may appeal within five days after said revision day to the Circuit Court for Somerset County, which said appeal shall be heard within ten days after it is entered and said Court shall have power to order said registration officer to enter or restore the name of any applicant who has been denied registration or to strike from said register the name of any person not entitled to registration, and the action of said Circuit Court for said Somerset County on such appeals shall be final.

301B. Before each election for town commissioner, after the year nineteen hundred and thirty-two, provided in Section 301 of this Article, there shall be held an intermediate registration and revision of said register of voters, and for the purpose of such intermediate registration and revision the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne shall appoint a registration officer who shall also serve as judge of election, and who shall possess the qualifications, take oath and have all powers prescribed for the registration officer and judge of election for the year nineteen hundred and thirty-two, as set forth in the preceding Section 301A; the said registration officer shall sit for the purpose of adding to said register the names of persons desiring registration who may be qualified as aforesaid according to provisions of Section 301 of this Article, on Monday,
