

four weeks preceding the first Monday in June in each year in which an election for town commissioner is to be held, as prescribed by Section 301 of this Article, at a place to be designated by the said President and Commissioners of Princess Anne, between the hours of eight A. M. and six P. M. and on said day the said registration officer shall proceed to register all persons qualified and entitled to vote at the election for town commissioner, who may make application therefor in the manner set forth in the preceding Section 301A, and on said Monday, four weeks preceding each said election, the registration officer shall also list for erasure the names of all persons appearing on said registration book known to said registration officer to be dead, or who have ceased to reside within the corporate limits of said town of Princess Anne or who are suspected for any reason of not being entitled to registration, and he shall also place upon said list the name of any person whose right to registration may be challenged by any person, provided said challenger makes oath before said registration officer that he believes such person so challenged does not possess the qualifications for voting at said town election prescribed by Section 301 of this Article; said registration officer shall thereupon on said Monday, mail to each of such suspected persons, addressed at Princess Anne, Maryland, a notice to the effect that his or her right to registration has been challenged and notifying such person to appear before said officer on Monday, three weeks before said first Monday in June, on which an election is held, between the hours of eight A. M. and six P. M., to show cause why his or her name shall not be stricken from said register; said registration officer shall sit again on said Monday three weeks before said first Monday in June, between the hours of eight A. M. and six P. M. for the purpose of revising said register, but no new names shall be added on said revision day and the said registration officer shall have full power and authority to strike from said register the name of any person whose name was placed upon the aforesaid suspected list, if satisfied that such suspect is not a qualified voter as in this Act provided, but any person feeling aggrieved by the action of said registration officer, either in registering or refusing to register any person, or in striking any name from said registration book, may appeal within five days after said revision day to the Circuit Court for Somerset County, which said appeal shall be heard within ten days after it is entered and said Court shall have power to order said registration officer to enter or restore the name of any applicant who has been denied registration or to strike from said register the name of any person not entitled to registration, and the action of said Circuit Court for said Somerset County on such appeals shall be final.
