

in a westerly direction, thence in a southerly direction, thence in a westerly direction and thence in a southerly direction by and with the limits of "Old Town" to the north line of the State road leading to Deals Island; thence by and with said Deals Island road in a westerly direction to the center of a concrete wall; thence running north twenty-one degrees and fifteen minutes west two hundred thirty-three rods to a point at the intersection of the northerly line of the State road leading to Mount Vernon with the easterly line of the Ridge road; thence running by and with the north line of the State road leading to Mount Vernon in an easterly direction to the place of beginning, known as "North Annex."

(c) Beginning at a point on the westerly line of the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at the easternmost corner of the limits of "North Annex" hereinbefore described under paragraph (b), said point being south thirty degrees and thirty minutes east of an iron bar set up on the east line of the Princess Anne-Salisbury State road opposite the intersection of the State road leading to Mount Vernon, and from said point running south thirty degrees and thirty minutes east to an iron pipe at the intersection of the southerly line of the Cohn and Bock road with the southwestery line of another road; thence running south twenty-one degrees and thirty minutes west three hundred fifteen rods to an iron pipe at the intersection of the westerly line of Somerset Avenue with the northeast line of an old road; thence by and with the northeast line of said old road north thirty-seven degrees and thirty minutes west to the easterly line of the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; thence by and with said Railroad Company's property in a northerly direction to intersect the limits of "Old Town" in a general northerly direction until said limits cross the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company north of the Manokin River; thence by and with the westerly line of the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to the place of beginning, to be known as "East Annex."

(d) Beginning at the center of a concrete wall on the north line of the State road leading from Princess Anne to Deals Island, the said place of beginning being at the southwest corner of "North Annex" hereinbefore described, and running thence by and with the northerly line of said State road leading to Deals Island and crossing the Manokin River to intersect the limits of "Old Town"; thence running in a south-