CHAPTER 506.

AN ACT to add a new section to Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Oysters," relating to the taking of oysters by scrapes, scoops or dredges in the waters of Dorchester County, said new section to be known as 423A.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be added to Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Oysters," that said new section be known as 423A and to read as follows:

423A. It shall be unlawful to catch oysters in the waters of Honga River lying northerly and inside of a straight line drawn from Crab Point on the east side of said river to the Black Spar Buoy and continuing to the southeasterly shore of Lower Hooper's Island, also in the waters of Tar Bay, until September 1, 1933. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be subject to the fines and penalties provided for in Section 428 of this Article.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1931.

Approved April 17, 1931.
