

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Council shall have power to appoint a treasurer who shall be a resident of said town qualified to vote for Mayor and Councilmen, and before entering upon the duties of his office shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with two good and sufficient securities to be approved by the said Mayor and Council in such penalty as the said Mayor and Council shall prescribe, conditioned that he shall well and faithfully account for all money paid over to him by the bailiff of said corporation, or that may be received by him from any other person or persons for the use of said corporation, and shall well and truly pay over to his successor in office or to the order of said Mayor and Council, and perform all other duties of his office according to law and the ordinances of said Mayor and Council; he shall keep full and correct account of all moneys received by him, with the sources from which received and the dates of such receipts, and of the disbursements made by him with the time when the persons to whom and what account the same were made.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor and Council may from time to time cause an assessment to be made of all the property liable to the State and County taxes within the corporate limits, and to levy a tax thereon not exceeding sixty cents on the one hundred dollars in any one year and that said property shall be assessed at its actual cash value. And the said Mayor and Council may appoint an assessor and collector of taxes and fix his salary or compensation, and provide for a method of collecting the taxes by ordinance, and also the method of making assessments; and any person aggrieved by any assessment made under this provision shall have the right of an appeal to the said Mayor and Council of said town of Mountain Lake Park.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Mayor of the said town to see that the ordinances of the town are duly and faithfully executed, and he shall appoint, subject to the confirmation of the Council, all such persons as agents and servants of said corporation as may be necessary to carry out the objects and purposes of the corporation, and enforce the ordinances to be passed thereby.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That the said Council shall have power to pass such ordinances not contrary to the Constitution and laws of this State as it may deem necessary for the good government of the town, for the protection and preservation of the town's property, rights and privileges; for the preservation of the peace and good order and securing persons and property from violence, danger and destruction; for
