

said bridge or culvert at a greater rate of speed than that specified on said signboard. Any individual, firm, co-partnership, corporation or other person, whether the owner of such vehicle, the person in charge and control over the same, or employee or agent of any such who shall draw, drive, propel or in any other manner take or cause to be taken, drawn, driven or propelled over any such bridge or culvert posted as aforesaid any wagon, truck, road engine, road roller, traction engine, threshing machine or other vehicle of any kind, weighing, with or without any load which may be in or upon the same, more than the number of pounds specified on the signboard so erected at the entrances or approaches of such bridge or culvert, or at a greater rate of speed than that specified on said signboard, without a permit in writing from the State Roads Commission shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, for each such offense; in addition to which the owner or person in control of such vehicle shall be liable to the said Commission for all damages which may be done the same by the violation of the regulation so prescribed. In any trial of any person charged with a violation of any of the provisions of this section oral proof of the existence of such signboard posted as herein provided and its contents shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the validity of the regulation thereon prescribed.

66. Any person defacing, injuring or destroying any sign or finger board erected or maintained under the preceding section shall be subject, upon conviction, before any justice of the peace or by the Circuit Court for any of the counties, to a fine of not more than fifty dollars for each offense, or confinement in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment.

67. Any person or corporation who in any manner paints, puts or fixes any advertisement, sign, notice or other writing or printing other than notices posted in pursuance of law on or to any stone, tree, fence, stump, pole, building or other structure which is in or upon the public highway or which is on the property of another, without first obtaining the written consent of such owner, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punishable by fine of not more than $10.00, which fine shall be payable to the State Board of Forestry for the purposes described in this section; provided, however, that the
