

94A. The citizens of the Town of Hebron, in Wicomico County, Maryland, be and they are hereby created a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Hebron," with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by such corporate name shall have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law or equity; may have and use a common seal; may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, and sell and dispose of the same for the benefit of the town; and may own or lease suitable buildings for municipal purposes.

94B. The limits of the said town shall be as follows: Beginning for the same at a point on the westerly line of the State road leading from Salisbury through the town of Hebron at the center of a ditch, which is the northerly line of the land of Isaac T. Wimbrow and wife, thence running in a westerly direction and with the center of said ditch in a straight line a distance of one hundred forty (140) yards, thence running in a southerly direction through the said Wimbrow land on a line parallel with and one hundred forty (140) yards distant from the westerly side of the said State road to a point one hundred fifty (150) feet north of the northerly side of Lillian Street, thence running in a westerly direction on a line parallel with said Lillian Street a distance of one hundred eighty-six (186) yards to a point in the aforesaid Wimbrow land, thence running in a southerly direction between the mill properties and the canning house property of Bounds and Phillips to the northerly side of the county road, known as the "Old Railroad" at a stone, thence running by and with the northerly line of said county road in a westerly direction and across the aforesaid State road to the center of a private road which leads through the Denila Wright land at a stone, thence in a northeasterly direction in a straight line to the northwest corner of the colored church property on the southerly side of Chestnut Street, thence running across said Chestnut Street on a perpendicular line to the northerly side thereof, thence running with said Chestnut Street in an easterly direction a distance of one hundred and seventy-five (175) yards, thence running in a northerly direction in a straight line to the point of intersection of the southerly side of Lillian Street with the center of the private lane of R. Jasper Mills, thence running across said Lillian Street and continuing in the same direction for a distance of one hundred and sixty (160) yards, to a point in the land of Joseph Howard, thence running