94C. The citizens of Hepbron of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall possess the qualifications of legally registered voters of the State of Maryland, and who shall have resided in said town for the space of six months next immediately preceding any town election, shall on the first Monday of August, 1931, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, and annually thereafter on the first Monday of August, elect three Commissioners to serve for one year, and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. Such Commissioners shall be qualified voters and residents of the said town, and they must continue to reside therein during the term of their office, and they must be the owners of real estate within said town. The said Commissioners shall serve without pay.

94D. Isaac T. Wimbrow, Levin B. Weatherly and W. Linwood Holliday be, and they are hereby appointed Judges of Election, to hold the first election under this Act. The said judges shall give notice that the election will be held and the place and time thereof by hand-bills posted in not less than five public places in said town at least ten days before the date thereof. The said election shall be held on the first Monday of August, 1931, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient. At said election all persons qualified, as prescribed in Section 94C of this sub-title, shall be entitled to vote for three persons for Commissioners having the necessary qualifications as therein prescribed. Such Judges of Election shall, before opening the polls, make oath before some Justice of the Peace in and for Wicomico County to permit every qualified voter to vote, and none other, and otherwise truly and faithfully to perform the duties of their office. A majority of said judges shall have power to do all things committed unto said judges. Any vacancy in said judges, caused by death or otherwise, shall be filled by the remaining judges.
