

Council of Rockville, promptly so shift, adjust, accommodate or remove the same at their own cost and expense, as to fully comply with the demands of such notice; and if any such individual or corporation shall refuse, neglect or fail, within twenty days after notice, to comply with the same, he or it, shall in addition to but not in substitution for any other remedy or remedies that said Mayor and Council may have in the premises, be subject to a fine of one hundred dollars for each and every offense, and also to an additional fine of fifty dollars a day for every day that said refusal, neglect or failure shall continue said fines to be collected as other fines in the Town of Rockville are collected.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That a commission of five persons be and the same is hereby created, consisting of the President of the Montgomery County National Bank of Rockville, the President of the Farmers' Banking and Trust Company of Montgomery County, and the President of the Rockville Chamber of Commerce and two other residents of the Town of Rockville to be named and selected by them and any vacancy caused by the resignation, death or removal from said Town of Rockville of either or both of the members so selected, or their successors, said vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the remaining members of said commission. Said committee to act in an advisory capacity, except that no plan shall be adopted or contract made for any of the real estate needed or work mentioned in this Act without the approval of at least a majority of said committee.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be construed as conferring additional and supplemental powers upon the Mayor and Council of Rockville and not as limiting or derogating from any power or authority now reposed in it by any Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland heretofore passed.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1931.