

shall be kept by them and for which they shall be responsible. In such book there shall be a space for the name of each person registering, his name, his color, his actual place of residence in said town, his ward, and date of registration. The Supervisor acting as Registration Official shall have the registration book at the place and at the time designated, as above set forth, for registration, and if upon examination of such applicant both Supervisors agree that such applicant is a qualified voter, they shall register his name, and all persons so registered shall be entitled to vote at town elections so long as their names appear upon such registration book.

The Supervisors of Election acting as Registration Officials on the first of said registration days, hereinbefore provided for, and on the first of said registration days in the year 1933 and in every second year thereafter, whenever an affidavit is made before them by any registered voter of said town that any name upon the books is not entitled to be thereon, shall note said name, and shall by placing in the United States mail addressed to said voter to the place of residence set out in said registration books with sufficient postage prepaid, a notice that his name has been noted for striking off, and that they will on the day of registration next thereafter act upon his right to remain upon said books as a qualified voter. The said Supervisors of Election sitting as Registration Officials may also on said first registration day take such action with regard to any name on their own motion. On the second of said registration days, the said Supervisors of Election sitting as Registration Officials shall pass upon all the names noted as above set out, and after hearing such evidence as may be presented before them, shall determine whether such name shall remain upon said books, or shall be stricken off, and in case they shall decide that any of such names shall be stricken off, they shall draw a line in red ink through such names on the registration books, and shall write in red ink at the end of said line the words "stricken off" and the date and the party whose name is thus stricken off shall not be entitled to vote in said town until his name be replaced thereon, as hereinafter provided.

Any person feeling aggrieved at the action of the Supervisors of Election acting as Registration Officials in refusing to register him, or in striking off the books his name, or in unlawfully registering some other person, shall have the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Kent County at any time
