CHAPTER 109.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 327, 328 and 329 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Montgomery County," sub-title "Foxes," relating to the hunting and killing of foxes in said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 327, 328 and 329 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Montgomery County," sub-title "Foxes," are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

327. It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot, shoot at, injure or kill any fox while such fox is being pursued by dogs, or to shoot or molest any dog while chasing or trailing a fox, or to dig out or in any manner take from any den a female fox or her young whelps or to kill or in any manner cause the death of such female fox or her young whelps during the period she is suckling them. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offense, and be imprisoned in the County Jail until the fine and costs be fully paid, all of said fine to be paid to the County Commissioners for the benefit of the Public Schools; provided, however, such imprisonment shall not exceed ten days for each offense.

328. It shall be unlawful to set any trap of any kind whatsoever within thirty (30) yards of any fox den.

329. It shall be unlawful to trap, hunt or chase with dog or gun any fox, between the first day of May and the fifteenth day of July, inclusive, in each year; provided nothing in this
