

directed, so long as any of said bonds are outstanding and unpaid, to levy against all of the assessable property within the City of Salisbury a tax sufficient to meet the interest on said bonds as it becomes due and/or to pay the principal thereof as they severally mature. It being the intention of this Act to make it mandatory upon the Mayor and Council of Salisbury to levy a tax against all the assessable property in Salisbury sufficient to meet and pay the interest on and principal of the bonds to be issued pursuant hereto as and when they severally mature, whenever and if ever the same cannot be paid from the charges collected by said Mayor and Council from the operation of the water and sewerage systems of Salisbury; said tax to be levied, collected and paid in the same manner as are the taxes with respect to the Salisbury Water and Sewer Bonds issued in pursuance of Chapter 494 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1924, are determined, levied, collected and paid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be supplemental to Chapter 494 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1924, and is intended to enlarge but not to curtail the rights and powers of the Mayor and Council of Salisbury with respect to the matters provided for in said Act, and the said Mayor and Council of Salisbury shall have and enjoy, with respect to the proceeds of the sale of the bonds, to be issued and sold hereunder, all of the rights, duties, powers and authority vested in the said Mayor and Council of Salisbury under said Chapter 494 of the Acts of 1924.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths ($\frac{3}{5}$) of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 13, 1931.

CHAPTER 16.

AN ACT to add four new sections to Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Harford County," sub-title "County Commissioners," to follow Section 234 of said Article and to be known as Sections
