

section to immediately follow Section 742 providing for the retirement and pensioning of the Chief Deputy in the office of the Sheriff of Baltimore County.

Section 742A. The Sheriff of Baltimore County be and he is hereby authorized to retire the Chief Deputy Sheriff of Baltimore County from office upon his application in writing to the Sheriff for retirement, provided said Chief Deputy Sheriff has become permanently disabled while in the active performance of duty or has reached the age of fifty-five years, and has performed faithful service as such Chief Deputy Sheriff for a continuous period of not less than twenty years; and the County Commissioners shall, upon written notice from the Sheriff of such retirement, place such retired Chief Deputy Sheriff upon the pension rolls of their office and pay to such pensioned Chief Deputy Sheriff annually a sum of money equal to one-half the yearly amount being received as salary by such Chief Deputy Sheriff at the time of his retirement. The said amount shall be payable in equal monthly installments and shall in no event continue after the payment of the current month in which such pensioner may die; and the County Commissioners shall levy such tax upon the assessable property of Baltimore County as may be necessary to raise the sum or sums of money hereinbefore provided for.

Approved April 6, 1931.
