

bunal or court, whether of original, appellate, inferior or superior jurisdiction, and shall not be disclosed directly or indirectly outside the membership of the Probation Department in the discharge of his official duties to anyone other than to a member or members of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, unless and until otherwise ordered by the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City or by any member thereof.

351G. The Supreme Bench of Baltimore City may appoint as many probation workers, clerical assistants and other employees to carry out the provisions of this Act as it may deem proper; and from time to time, and without assigning any reason therefor, may revoke the appointment of any one or more of such probation workers, clerical assistants or other employees so assigned to work in the Probation Department, as well as any and all of such persons heretofore so appointed or so assigned. All probation workers, clerical assistants and other employees so appointed or assigned, before the time of their appointment must have resided in the State of Maryland, and in the City of Baltimore, for at least one year before the time of such appointment. Such persons may be selected by examination, held by, or under the authority or direction or consent of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City. The Supreme Bench may appoint one of said probation workers as Chief of such department.

351H. The Supreme Bench of Baltimore City shall fix the salaries of each probation worker and of each of such clerical assistants and other employees; the moneys necessary therefor, as well as all moneys necessary to carry out the provisions of this sub-title, shall be paid by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore and shall be included in the next annual budget of the Board of Estimates in the Ordinance of Estimates, and shall be paid in the same manner as the salaries of other appointees of said Supreme Bench are paid. Moneys for said salaries and expenses shall be paid on proper statements or vouchers certified to or approved by the Supreme Bench or by any member thereof, and without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore thereto; provided, however, that the total of such yearly salaries and expenses of the said Probation Department shall not exceed the sum of forty thousand dollars, unless the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall assent to any sum in excess of said sum of forty thousand dollars annually.
