Approved March 13, 1931.

CHAPTER 28.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 333 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Montgomery County," sub-title " 'Friendship Heights' and 'The Hills,' " increasing the additional special levy and tax in said villages.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 333 of Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Montgomery County," sub-title " 'Friendship Heights' and 'The Hills,' " be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

333. If the majority of the said "Friendship Heights Citizens' Committee" decide the sum hereinbefore authorized to be taxed and levied is an insufficient amount for the ensuing year, or any succeeding year, then and in that event the said Committee, or resident taxpayers of said villages affected by this Act, may, on or before April 15, 1914, or any succeeding year, petition in writing the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to make an additional special levy and tax of not more than thirty cents on each one hundred ($100.00) dollars of the assessable value of said real and personal property in said villages, such petition to be signed by the majority of said Committee, or such number of resident taxpayers as may satisfy said County Commissioners of the fact that there is a general public demand on the part of the residents, citizens and taxpayers of said villages for such additional special levy and such special tax for such purposes as hereinbefore mentioned, but no such special levy of such additional special tax shall be made on such property, unless notice of the intention of said County Commissioners to make such additional special levy, the purpose or purposes thereof and the amount thereof and approximate effect of such additional special levy on the tax rate of said villages shall be
