

laws of the State; and shall also have civil jurisdiction as other Magistrates in said county. The said Police Justices shall have exclusive jurisdiction of and shall be required to try and determine all violations of the criminal laws and all violations of the ordinances of the Town of Rising Sun, subject, however, to the same right of election to be tried by a jury, notice of which must be clearly given by said Police Justice to the party before trial, and subject to the same right of appeal as now exists under the law; provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall preclude the said Police Justice from trying criminal cases which arise in any other district of said county if the same shall be properly brought before him; provided, however, nothing herein shall confer any right of removal of any case from said Police Justice to any other Justice of the Peace of Cecil County.

238D. Said Police Justice shall at the first regular meeting of the County Commissioners held in each month make a report in writing verified under oath, made before the clerk of said commissioners or before one of the commissioners, of all cases for violation of any of the Public General Laws of Maryland and Public Local Laws of Maryland heard or tried before him during the preceding month, and also a like report of all cases for violations of any ordinances of the town of Rising Sun, heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which said reports shall each state, in each and every case, the name of the defendant, the offense charged, the name of the person upon whose complaint the warrant was issued, the number of witnesses summoned, the name and official capacity of the officer serving the warrant and summons, the judgment rendered, the amount of fine or penalty imposed, the amount of cost taxed, which shall include all constables' costs and constables' fees, where process is served by police officers acting with the authority of constables, and the amount of fine and costs collected by him, and all such fines and costs, including constables' and officers' fees for serving warrants, and all other process which in cases shall be properly taxed and collected, and said Police Justice at the time of filing said reports and as a part of each of said reports, pay over to said Treasurer of Cecil County the whole amount of all fines, penalties, forfeitures, Justice's costs and State's witness fees, collected and received by said Police Justices for the violation of any Public General law or any Public Local law of Maryland, and paid
