

the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond with surety or sureties to be approved by the Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned to truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of his office, and that he will account for and pay over to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs for which he is bound to account and pay over to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. And each of the deputy clerks assigned to the sitting Magistrates, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall execute and deliver to the State of Maryland a good and sufficient bond, with surety or sureties to be approved by the Chief Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, in the penalty of five thousand dollars conditioned to truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of their respective offices, and that they will account for and pay over to the Chief Clerk of the Traffic Court all fines, penalties, forfeitures, fees and costs collected by them. The several Magistrates assigned to the Traffic Court shall not handle any funds of the Court and shall not be required to give any other or additional bond than that required by other Justices of the Peace under Section 624, Article 4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland.

The Mayor and City Council shall provide suitable and proper quarters for said Traffic Court in the station house of the Central Police District of Baltimore City, or at such other place as may be convenient and suitable, but in no event shall said quarters or location of the Traffic Court be at a greater distance than five city squares or blocks from the Court House of Baltimore City.

The Governor shall also appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and if the Senate shall not be in session, then the Governor shall appoint from the City of Baltimore at large an additional Justice of the Peace, who shall be of high moral character and a reputable member of the Bar of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, who shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for at least five years, who shall receive a salary of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly, and whose jurisdiction, duties and powers shall be the same as those conferred upon and required of the other Magistrates assigned to the Traffic Court as aforesaid, and who shall be designated by the Governor to sit in said court in the absence by illness or otherwise of the other Magis-
