

The members from time to time of societies of Christian Endeavor now or hereafter connected with the Corporation shall, by virtue of such membership, be members of the Corporation during the period of such membership so long as the societies, of which they are respectively members, shall be connected with the Corporation. Any society of Christian Endeavor now or hereafter connected with the Corporation may sever such connection upon its application to do so.

9. The annual meeting of the Corporation shall be held as a convention and shall be open to all members of the Corporation. The time and place of holding such annual meetings or conventions and/or any special meeting of members shall be determined as from time to time provided by the by-laws, but the Corporation shall not be required by its by-laws to designate a fixed or stated time or place for such annual meetings or conventions. Such annual or special meetings may be held within or without the State of Maryland. Such notice of the time and place of holding such annual meetings or conventions and of the time, place and purpose of special meetings of members shall be given as shall be from time to time provided by the by-laws of the Corporation. No failure of notice of any annual meeting shall invalidate such meeting or any action taken thereat. The members attending in person the respective sessions of any such annual or special meetings, whatever their number, shall constitute a quorum for the respective sessions so attended. There shall be no voting by proxy.

10. The Executive Committee shall have the power to adopt, alter and repeal by-laws at any regular or special meeting thereof, and the members shall have like power to adopt, alter and repeal by-laws at its annual meeting or convention or at any special meeting by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at the session of such annual meeting or convention or special meeting at which the same shall be presented and acted upon.

11. The Corporation shall have, in addition to the powers hereby conferred, all such rights and powers as may now or hereafter be conferred upon corporations by the Public General Laws of the State of Maryland. The Executive Committee shall have in addition to the powers hereby conferred all such rights and powers as may be now or hereafter conferred upon
