

the Washington-Baltimore Boulevard, and running thence due north to the north line of said Boulevard and thence along the north line of said Boulevard to high water mark on the east bank of Anacostia River, thence along said high water mark on said east bank of the Anacostia River to the east boundary line of the Fort Lincoln Cemetery, thence along the east boundary line of Fort Lincoln Cemetery to the point of beginning.

241. The Town of Colmar Manor shall be divided into four wards, as follows:

First Ward—That portion of said town lying between Fort Lincoln Cemetery and a line from the Washington-Baltimore Boulevard to the Anacostia River, following the west line of Pershing Avenue.

Second Ward—That portion of said town bounded on the west by a line from the Boulevard to the River, following the west line of Pershing Avenue, and on the east by a line from the Boulevard to the River, following the west line of Marshall Avenue.

Third Ward—That portion of said town bounded on the west by a line from the Boulevard to the River, following the west line of Marshall Avenue, and on the east by a line from the Boulevard to the River, following the west line of Lenox Avenue.

Fourth Ward—That portion of the said town lying east of a line from the Boulevard to the River, following the west line of Lenox Avenue.

242. The officers of said town shall consist of a Mayor and four Councilmen, the Mayor to be elected by the combined vote of the said town, and the four Councilmen to be elected by their respective wards; and such appointive officers as are hereinafter designated; and each officer appointed shall continue to hold office for such term as the Mayor and Council shall designate or until his successor is duly qualified. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each officer shall take oath that he will diligently and faithfully discharge all duties of his office without favor, partiality or prejudice, and said oath shall be filed among the records of said town of Colmar Manor.

243. At the first election of officers held under this charter, hereby provided to be held on the second Tuesday in July, 1931,