

conduct a registration to determine the qualified voters of the town and hold an election of officers and declare the results thereof. Said registration shall be held on two consecutive days, the second of which shall be not less than fifteen days before said annual election. That said Board shall not less than one week before the first such registration days post in five or more places within the boundaries of said town notices to the citizens of said town that said registration is to be held at a definite place within the limits of the town between the hours of 7.00 o'clock P. M. and 9.00 o'clock P. M. of each of said two days. All citizens of the United States who have attained the age of twenty-one years and who have been bona fide residents of the said town for at least one year prior to said registration shall be eligible to register, and after registering shall be eligible to vote at all town elections so long as they remain bona fide residents of said town. The said Board of Election Supervisors shall have power to determine the eligibility of each applicant for registration by propounding to each applicant for registration, under oath, the following questions: First: Are you a citizen of the United States? Second: What is your name? Third: Have you resided in Colmar Manor for a period of one year immediately preceding this registration? Fourth: Are you twenty-one years of age or over? Fifth: In what ward do you reside? For the purpose of making this examination, any member of the said Board of Election Supervisors shall have the power of administering oaths in all matters applying to or incident to the exercise of his duties as Election Supervisor as set forth in this Act. Should the answers of the applicant to the first, third and fourth questions be in the affirmative, then it shall be the duty of said Board of Election Supervisors to accept such applicant for registration. Should the answer of said applicant to any of the above questions be in the negative, then it shall be the duty of said Board to refuse to register such applicant. Should the applicant answer any of the above provided questions falsely he shall be guilty of perjury and be subject to the penalties in such cases provided by the laws of the State of Maryland. Said Board of Election Supervisors shall conduct an election by ballot on the second Tuesday in July, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday then on the following day, for the election of officers as provided for in this charter. The polls shall be open between the hours of 5.00 o'clock P. M. and 9.00 P. M. Said Board of Election Supervisors shall provide booths, a
