

imum penalty in any such ordinance not to exceed a fine in amount of fifteen dollars ($15) or confinement in the County Jail for a period of not more than fifteen days. Any Justice of the Peace for Prince George's County, Maryland, may impose such fines or penalties for the breach of such ordinances and in default of payment he may commit the offender to confinement for a period of not more than fifteen days in the County Jail. No ordinance passed by the Mayor and Council shall go into effect until after the expiration of thirty days after its passage, unless otherwise provided by the laws of this State. If within thirty days from the date of its passage a petition protecting against it signed by one-half as many voters as voted at the last general election shall be filed with the Town Clerk-Treasurer, such ordinance shall be suspended, and the Mayor and Council shall reconsider it, and if it be not repealed the Mayor and Council shall submit it to a vote of the duly qualified voters of said town at the next election; provided however that if the next election shall occur more than ninety days thereafter the Mayor and Council shall call a special election for the purpose of deciding whether such proposed ordinance shall or shall not become a law, and the same shall become operative or repealed by a majority of the votes cast at this election.

249. The Mayor and Town Council shall have the same power as the State Board of Health, within the boundaries of the said town. They may adopt and provide an efficient system of drainage; they may adopt suitable measures for the removal of garbage and sewage, and fix the amount to be paid therefor.

250. All roads, streets, avenues, or alleys, which are now or shall hereafter be shown, on any plat or addition to the platted part of said town, as public highways, and accepted by the Mayor and Town Council as such, are hereby made and declared to be public streets, avenues, and alleys of said town, and shall be from time to time improved and repaired as the public interest may require and the resources of the town justify.

251. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County, Maryland, shall annually pay over to the Clerk-Treasurer of said town of Colmar Manor three-fourths of that proportion of the entire taxes levied for roads and bridges imposed upon the assessable property within the boundaries of the said town by the County Commissioners of Prince George's County, to be
