

provided that any and all certificates of indebtedness issued under the authority of this Act, or any renewal thereof shall be paid or definite provision for payment made within thirty months from date of issuance, otherwise the Board of County Commissioners of Montgomery County are directed to include a sufficient amount to redeem any and all certificates of indebtedness or renewals thereof that have been outstanding thirty months or over in the next levy following such thirty-month period, term, or maturity. The said Board is further authorized and empowered to borrow upon the faith and credit of said county and to issue certificates of indebtedness therefor in the form above prescribed in the additional sum of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars at a rate of interest not to exceed (6%) per annum, whenever through error or inadvertence any necessary item is omitted from the annual levy for taxes or when a lesser amount is levied, or collected than is in fact required in the opinion of the Board of County Commissioners to meet the obligations and expenses necessary to protect the health, morals, safety and welfare of the people of the county; provided that no part of said latter sum of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars shall be borrowed for a longer period than the termination of the terms of the members of the Board authorizing such loan, and the said Board shall include annually in the levy of taxes in Montgomery County such sum or sums as may be necessary to pay any and all certificates of indebtedness so issued, together with interest thereon, maturing prior to the date of the next annual levy, and the failure of any member of said Board to vote for the inclusion in the levy of an amount necessary to so redeem and pay any certificates falling due prior to the expiration of his term of office or voting to issue any certificates maturing beyond the period of his term of office shall constitute a misdemeanor and any such member violating this provision upon conviction shall be fined a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) and shall be ineligible thereafter to hold office as County Commissioner.

238. The County Commissioners are hereby further authorized and empowered to expend any money borrowed under the provisions of this Act for the purpose of building or constructing any permanent improvement for the county purposes, provided that such improvement shall have been determined by resolution of a majority of the County Commissioners to
