

Section 426 of said Article, relating to the registration of voters and to municipal elections in Frederick City.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be and it is hereby added to Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Frederick County," sub-title "Frederick City," sub-heading "Election and Registration," said new section to be known as Section 426A, to follow immediately after Section 426 of said Article and to read as follows:

426A. The Board of Supervisors of Elections for Frederick City shall have power whenever more than (700) seven hundred person are registered in any one election precinct to provide an additional polling place in each election precinct, which may or may not be held at the same location, and whenever the Board of Supervisors shall designate an additional polling place in any election precinct they shall appoint judges and clerks of elections therefor, as in this Article provided, who shall have all the powers, be subject to all the responsibilities and be liable to all the penalties prescribed in this Article for judges and clerks of elections. Whenever an additional polling place is provided for any such election precinct, it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors to cause an additional set or sets of books to be prepared, containing the names and other entries of registered voters transcribed from the original books. One set of books shall contain the names of qualified voters and other entries, except voters whose names have been stricken from the registers, whose surnames begin with the letter "A" down to and including the letter "L." The other set of books shall contain the names of qualified voters and other entries, except voters whose names have been stricken from the registers, whose surnames begin with the letter "M" down to and including those whose surnames begin with the letter "Z." One set of books shall be used in each of the polling places designated as provided in this section. And whenever the Board of Supervisors of Elections for Frederick City shall, in their judgment, believe that the registration books of any precinct in the city are unfit for use at an ensuing election, they shall cause an additional set of books to be prepared containing the names and other entries of registered voters transcribed from the original registration books, and thereafter only the new books so transcribed shall
